PROCEDURES TO RAISE A CONCERN/COMPLAINT:

Who to contact?

At Amity, we work on a tier process for all communications including concerns or complaints. In any situation, individuals should start at the bottom or lowest suitable level. If a concern is raised at a higher level before reasonable action has been taken to address it at a suitable lower level, the school will redirect the individual. This enables the right people to be involved and will speed up the process.

How to raise a concern/complaint?

A concern may be raised through a phone call or an email or in person. It may be addressed to the reception or the concerned teacher.
